Advocacy Week, January 18 – 22, 2021

This is a year like no other, and that holds true for reimagining how best to adapt and apply PTA flexibility to new ways of advocating to help every child reach their potential. The Capitol campus in Olympia is closed to the public for the 2021 legislative session, which means that PTA members will not be able to host our annual Focus Day on the Capitol steps.

However, advocacy is not a one-day event; it is an everyday action. This year, Advocacy week will be held January 18-22, 2021. The Washington State PTA encourages members to take-action from home or your phone throughout the week and the entire year. To participate, subscribe to the WSPTA Action Network to stay informed.

Input your address here to get the names of the Representatives and Senator(s) for you, your school district, and their contact information. Reach out and tell legislators why WSPTA priorities are important to you and ask for their support!
